Instructions for the Reader

Read each archetype slowly.

Notice where your body responds.

Feel for the one that meets you where you are — not where you think you should be.

Your resonance is not a label.

It is a doorway.

Choose the archetype that feels like a homecoming,
a recognition,
or a next true step.

This is where your path begins.
